VICTOR JORY

"I cannot hope to find adequate terms to express what I consider my debt to the Pasadena Community Playhouse, but I can truthfully say that I know the training, contacts and experience I derived from my association with the Playhouse are responsible in no small measure for whatever success I have achieved."—Victor Jory.

Practical training for stage and screen...based on twenty years' experience of the internationally famous Pasadena Playhouse...equips you for any branch of dramatic endeavor...acting, producing, directing or technical. Experience before paying audiences. We produce constantly on three stages with openings attended by talent scouts from nearby Hollywood. Other players, beside Victor Jory, who have gone from Playhouse to profitable careers include Wayne Morris, Gloria Stuart, Randolph Scott, Robert Young, Anne Shirley, Onslow Stevens, Douglass Montgomery. Two-year course emphasizes development of students' individual talents and includes not only acting, diction, make-up and other back-stage arts, but also cultural advantages such as languages, literature of drama, etc.
